

Dedalo Minosse International Prize for Commissioning a Building
In Japan
At ASJ Tokyo Cell
7-18 April 2018

After the award ceremony on June 23rd at the Teatro Olimpico in Vicenza, the Dedalo Minosse Prize traveling exhibition goes on around the world.

Thanks to the collaboration with Architect Studio Japan, from 7th to 18th of April 2018, it will be possible to admire, in Tokyo, the projects selected at the tenth edition of the Prize, which sees among its participants numerous architects from Japan.

It is not the first time that the exhibition of the Prize is hosted in Japan: in 2015 it was presented in front of a crowded hall with more than 350 participants among architects and clients.

To renew the collaboration with our partners overseas, on April 13th the Prize will be officially presented in the prestigious headquarters of the Italian Institute of Culture in Tokyo. Many guests will attend the event, including Bruno Gabbiani, president of ALA Assoarchitetti, Paolo Calvetti director of the Italian Institute of Culture, Nobuaki Furuya of Waseda University, Yuhei Maruyama president of ASJ, Katsufumi Kubota, architect and juror of the tenth edition, as well as award-winning architects Philippe Prost, Luis Arturo Garcia, Matias Frazzi, Ryuichi Ashizawa.

Dedalo Minosse International Prize for commissioning a building, promoted by ALA Assoarchitetti and Regione del Veneto, and in collaboration with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, celebrate this year 20 years of life and its tenth edition, an important milestone to be commemorated internationally. Unique in its kind, it rewards the client of architecture as a fundamental actor in the creation of quality works.
